

Creative Mornings September Event Features Speaker Elizabeth Wills and New Host Roby McEuen

Creative Mornings' new host Roby McEuen and speaker Elizabeth Wills, multi-faceted creative who blends the worlds of music and marketing, invite the Fort Worth creative community to make creativity "blossom" at this month's event on September 26 at 8:30 AM at Cielo Place.

Registration is live, secure your seat through the website:

Our September speaker Elizabeth Wills brings unique perspective as a recording artist and songwriter, as well as a seasoned communications and marketing professional. She's the co-founder of Wills + Martin, a firm that helps businesses grow through strategic partnerships. She also co-founded Immergent, an initiative dedicated to fostering healing and connection through creative experiences.

As we discuss growth in creativity, this month we welcome our new host Roby McEuen, a well-known figure in Fort Worth's creative community. He brings energy and experience through his award-winning creative firm, Robeegraffix Advertising Design, and position as Assistant Professor of Practice at the University of Texas at Arlington where he has taught design and advertising since 1988.

Don't miss out on this opportunity to collaborate with creatives and be inspired by the unique experience and artistry of Roby McEuen and Elizabeth Wills. They are excited to gather Fort Worth creatives, Friday morning for a time of discussion and inspiration.

As part of our Blossom series, we will be featuring themes of florals, and as always free breakfast and lecture. Visit the website to secure your spot through creativemornings.com and select Fort Worth to attend this event at Cielo Place. Parking is free to the North and West of the building in the large lot.
